SHE USED A RAZOR

One Girl Cuts the Throat of a Companion.

KILLING HER IN AN INSTANT

She Springs Upon Her Victim Without Warning-Cause for the Tragic and Heartless Attack.

Maurais, Tenn., Jan. 26 .- The most ensational tragedy which has occurred in Memphis for years was committed yesterday afternoon. The victim was a young lady and her slayer was of the same sex. Both were familiar figures an agenety. A few minutes before 4 o'clock a buggy containing Miss Alice Mitchell and Lizzie Johnson drove up to the broad sidewalk around Custom house block, leading to the levee. The lines were in the hands of Miss Johnston, and beside her, calm and self-possessed ant Miss Mitchell.

Coming slowly up the steep incline from the river were Miss Freds Ward, of Gold Dust, Ark., and her sister Jo. who had just put another sister, Mrs.

who had just put another aister, Mrs. Cummings, aboard the steamer Rosa Lee for Gold Dust, Ark. The young ladies were roon opposite the carriage chatting pleasantly, and paying no attention to surroundings.

Suddenly from out of the carriage at a bound came Miss Mitchell. Grasping Miss Ward by the neck, she drew a bright razer from out of the folds of her dress and without a word drew it across the throat of her victim. Miss across the throat of her victim. Miss Ward sank to the pavement in an in-stant, the blood pouring in torrents from the severed jugular.

Grappled With Her. The murdered girl's sister, who had by this time recovered from her aston-ishment, grappled with the woman and tried to hold her, but in a twinking she too, received a cut, luckily only a trifling one, near the ear. Miss Mitchell being freed from Miss Ward jumped into the buggy in an instant and with the exclamation: "Drive on; I've done it!" seized the whip and with Miss Johnson still holding the lines, the pair were soon around the corner, into Madison street and away from the scene of the Miss Ward was tenderly picked up by the gathering crowd, and a passing car-riage which was pressed into service conveyed her to Rogers' infirmary. She was, however, beyond human aid, and expired just as the infirmary was reached. The body was then taken to an undertaker's establishment.

At 6 o'clock this evening Chief of Police Davis had arrested Miss Mitchell at her home on Union street. Cause of the Mad Act.

The cause of the killing is tonight not possitively apparent, as Miss Mitchnot possitively apparent, as Miss Mitch-ell refuses to say a word to any one on the subject. It is said, however, that Miss Ward, who is visiting in the city, had on former trips to Memphis been the guest of Miss Mitchell. Lately, however, she refused to partake of the hospitality of the Mitchell household and refused also to recognize Miss Mitchell on the street. It is alleged, further, by several persons that Miss Ward has made many remarks of a garding Mise Mitchell, and this latter allegation is supposed to have been the cause of the tragedy.

Miss Mitchell is the 19-year-old daughter of George Mitchell, a retired furniture dealer, and she and Miss Johnson, in the latter's stylish "turuout," were a familiar sight on the different drives about the city.

Miss Ward is the daughter of John Ward, a planter and wealthy merchant of Gold Dust, Ark. At the inquest this evening the jury rendered a verdict charging Miss Mitch-eil with premeditated murder.

PREY FOR THE FIRE

Disastrous Conflagration in the Heart of Columbus, O.

ONE ENTIRE BLOCK CONSUMED

Property Valued at Nearly a Half Million Dollars Swept Away-A Number of Narrow Escapes.

COLUNEUS, O., Jan. 26 -The most disastrous fire that Columbus has ever experienced occurred in the large block of buildings at the northwest corner of Rich and Bigh streets A small bluze started about 7:40 u. m. in the large building at the corner, and before noon the entire from High to Wall, had been gutted by the flames. Among the buildings de-stroyed were the Metropolitan opera house and Godman's shoe factory.

Narrow Escapes. There were a number of thrilling and hairbreadth escapes, and with the large force of women employed about the building, it is miraculous that the death roll does not mount up higher. Godman's shoe factory employs about 204 persons; 183 of these are girls, 60 men and 12 boys. The spectacle of girls going down the fire ladders and escapes with aprons over their heads was one of the thrilling episodes that caused the hearts of men to stand still. These victims were driven out of the building by the fierce flames, and had not even time to get on their trappings, the fire spread so rapidly.

Jumped from a Window.

It is reported that Katie Trott jumped through the window on the first floor and broke both her legs; Louise Ault and Miss Sauerfrey had a thrilling experience in being saved from the flames. They found the hall full of smoke and flames. through which they had to go, and fire shut off the access to the stairway. and it is reported that Miss Ault sprang through the flames while her companion jumped through a window on the north side of the building. A woman from the upper floor made her way to the lower part of the factory building and there became prostrated from the smoke and heat. It is supposed that the fire start-ed in the shoe factory. The loss, it is thought, will be about $450,000.

PRINTERS LOCKED OUT. A Memphis Newspaper Having Trouble with Its Employee.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Jan. 26. - The Morning Commercial locked out its union printers Monday morning, their places being taken by sixteen non-union men imported from St. Louis. They met with a hot reception. The union men attacked them as they went to dinner and a squad of policemen had to be called in to keep the peace. A. J. Mc-Dade, of St. Louis, the new foreman, was hit in the eye. He draw a revolver, but was arrested before doing any harm. Eleven of the non-union men consented to leave town and were lescorted to the depot. The others are scattered. The front of the Commercial office is besleged with union men to keep them out. The Commercial asked the union to reduce from 45 to 40 cents. The union refused, hence the trouble.
